RE: Edward Gutierrez-Rodriguez

CONTINUATION:

Steven Zelaya claimed his employer was going to pick both his brother and him up. He provided agents with his employer's cell phone number. Agents called the number and spoke to a male subject, later identified as Edward Gutierrez-Rodriguez (herein after "Gutierrez"), whom stated that he was not available to pick up the Zelaya brothers because his truck had mechanical issues.

Shortly thereafter, agents received an image from a remote camera near the Rio Grande River. The camera showed the Zelayas and the other illegal aliens as they were attempting to cross the border wall. When the Zelayas were confronted with this information, both Sajid and Steven admitted they were not citizens of the United States but rather they were citizens and nationals of Belize who were illegally and unlawfully present in the United States.

On March, 28, 2019, Gutierrez arrived at the Border Patrol Station claiming he was in possession of the Zelayas driver's license and social security cards. Agents inspected the documents and determined that the documents were fraudulent. A records check of Gutierrez was conducted and revealed he had an outstanding felony warrant from California. At this point, Gutierrez was taken into custody on the warrant.

PRINCIPALS STATEMENT:

Edward Gutierrez-Rodriguez, who claimed to be a United States citizen, was read his Miranda Rights. He understood and agreed to provide a statement to agents.

Gutierrez claimed that Sajid and Steven Zelaya are going to work for him and that they all drove down from Dallas, Texas earlier that week. Gutierrez claimed he was considering employing the Zelayas as truck drivers. Gutierrez stated that both Zelayas had left their wallets with him when they went out the previous night to "find girls."

CONTINUATION:

MATERIAL WITNESSES STATEMENTS:

Sajid Kevin Zelaya and Steven Elvis Zelaya were both read their Miranda Rights. Both men indicated they understood their rights and agreed to provide statements.

Sajid, a citizen of Belize, stated that he and Steven had traveled to Reynosa, Mexico. Sajid claimed that Steven had made the smuggling arrangements and that they paid to cross the Rio Grande River into the United States. Sajid stated that Steven was communicating with an individual he knew as "Edward" throughout their journey.

Steven, a citizen of Belize, stated that he made contact with an alien smuggler known to him as "Eugene" with whom he had made arrangements to be smuggled into the United States. Steven stated he and Sajid had flown into Mexico City and met an individual known as "Ricardo." Ricardo charged the Zelayas $4,000 to smuggle the brothers into the United States. Steven stated that they then traveled to Reynosa and stayed at a motel. They eventually were crossed over the Rio Grande River on a raft and were caught by Border Patrol agents. Steven stated that "Eugene" used to work for Gutierrez and that they had called Gutierrez before crossing into the United States. After they crossed they called Gutierrez to inform him where they were so he could pick them up. According to Steven, Gutierrez said that he was in the area but was fixing his truck. Steven further indicated that "Eugene" was supposed to provide them with identification.
